Jessica;

You should understand that I was given access to that account by Mr. Orlando when I was a director. My access was given and actions taken were as a director and officer of DWAC and at the direction of Patrick Orlando acting on behalf Benessere. Your $6,000 forensic audit may have missed the fact that I have been paying for the Box Account and am the billing rep on the account. Your audit may have also missed my login activity. Any compensation was set by a committee and approved by shareholders, including Patrick Orlando. Alex Cano has ever worked as my personal assistant. Mr. Orlando never paid Alex Cano for the services rendered, as admitted in this litigation, by Mr. Cano. This included compensation in the form of Securities.

Once represented I intend to seek sanctions, report your firm to the bar and then follow up with malicious prosecution after the MTD is approved.

Further, you should advise Mr. Orlando that he has much bigger issues to worry about and focus on than me. Please advise if you are continuing to take directions from Mr. Orlando with respect to your representation of ARC. As you may be aware, Mr. Orlando was voted out as managing member of ARC and has been replaced by Gregg Alger. It is my understanding that only Mr. Alger at this point has authority to direct the actions of ARC. Please let me know if you need Mr. Alger's contact information so that your firm can take proper direction from someone with authority to speak for ARC and I will be more than happy to get that for you.

With Kind Regards;
